The House is Inspired by an Iconic building on Reunion Island, and exotic sense of French Colonial lives come to Costa Rica in this modern Residence. By respecting the traditional architectural proportions, and focusing on the simplicity of the design, the owner created a fluid space that perfectly combines an absolute class and an easy and warm feeling of life.

This unique House is built on 1.2 acres (5000m2) of lush gardens. The exquisite decoration of the backyard helps to create a sense of peace and absolute privacy within the pool / ranch area. Surrounded by palm trees, exotic flowers, fruit trees and trails that lead to stream, this space is particularly incredible. The property also includes a 5 apartment building, completely independent of the main home, parking spaces, warehouse, gym area and a little house to save entrance. Approximately 3220 sft (3000m2) are land suitable for construction and commercial use.
