Quepos, Manuel Antonio, Puntarenas

This expansive and stunning 632-acre property is situated in one of the most sought-after regions in the South Pacific, as the name suggests. The strategic location of this property offers easy access to various attractions in the area. Just a 20-minute drive leads to the airport and marina of Quepos, while an additional 5 minutes takes you to the renowned Manuel Antonio National Park, the country's most visited national park. Heading south, Dominical is a mere 15 minutes away, providing access to the area's attractions. Furthermore, the golf course in Ojochal is less than 45 minutes from the property. Bordering a public road, this property allows for extensive development opportunities. Whether you envision a Retreat Center with the soothing sounds of over 20 waterfalls, a residential community, or a condominium complex, the possibilities are vast. Noteworthy is the property's unique feature of expansive mountain slopes, ideal for constructing homes, communal areas, gardens, parks, and trails leading to the river originating on the property. Abounding with a variety of magnificent trees and rich flora and fauna, this property is a nature lover's paradise. The potential for further development sets this property apart as an exceptional choice. Financing options are available, making this an even more appealing opportunity.
