The community includes approximately 400 high-end properties with award-winning architecture, complete infrastructure and a vibrant community made up of national and international residents. Roughly 30% of the 104 hectares (over 200 acres) of land are designated as protected forest land. Another 25 acres within Villa Real are built out as common areas for homeowners, including beautiful gardens, tennis and basketball courts, a Club House and recreational parks with hiking trails. The Villa Real luxury gated compound has become a standard for luxury living in Costa Rica, and is one of the favorite luxury residential communities in the country. Villa Real is located close to the country's most exclusive areas of entertainment, and business, in Escazu and Santa Ana. The development is located on kilometer 9 of Route 27, one of the newest highways which quickly connects to the airport only 20 minutes away or to the beautiful beaches on the Pacific coast only one hour away.
