For families with a discerning taste for the finer things, look no further and request an appointment to see this private offering. Situated in a prime, undisclosed location in Escazu, enjoy the utmost in convenience with easy access to the area's finest shops, cafes, international schools and business district, while feeling lightyears away tucked into a quaint residential neighborhood. The home was masterfully designed with a refined taste, and a sober elegance to calm the soul of those who are fortunate who walk through its door. The facade combines glass, concrete, metal and wood accenting both the simplicity of materials, yet a craftsmen's touch. Upon entering the home, you will find an impressive two story atrium hosting the living room, flooded by natural light from the two story glass to the front, and an interior garden to the rear. Beyond this space, you will find the dining room, engulfed in the surrounding green spaces allowing natural light through the glass on 3 sides, and conveniently adjoining the chef's kitchen, equipped with Veneta Cucina cabinetry imported from Italy. The finishes throughout the home transmit a warmth and subtly, yet a deliberate sense of luxury and taste with details at every glance. As you make your way upstairs, you will find three guest/children bedrooms on one wing of the home, tucked into the bamboo lush surroundings, and walk across the suspended bridge over the living area, to a completely private master suite. This space is truly an escape, and boasts panoramic views overlooking the entire city, a walk in closet of dramatic proportions, and a soothing bathroom with dual vanities from Edone in Italy, and an internal garden highlighting the natural tones of the home. On the lower level, you will find a home office, and a bar/entertainment area that opens up to the terrace and private garden area. The yard is a perfect size, and plans have been underway to build a pool if a new owner is interested, and in addition to the panoramic views, this property is unique as it neighbors to a dedicated green zone from the municipality further ensuring both peace and privacy. No words can describe this unique luxury residence, but one step inside will turn desire into reality.
