Tucked away in the prestigious Costa Verde Estates on Costa Rica's enchanting southern coast, this property is a perfect blend of luxury living and permaculture principles. With world-class amenities at your fingertips—including a helipad, tennis court, gym, secure gate with guard, high-speed fiber optic internet, park, and clubhouse—this location offers a lifestyle of unparalleled luxury and convenience. Spanning over 2.5 acres with a large buildable pad, the lot maximizes its expansive, nearly all usable space. It features stunning panoramic views of the iconic whale's tail and breathtaking sunsets, providing a daily spectacle of natural beauty. Perfectly oriented to capture the captivating twilight hues, this property deepens your connection with the natural world, enhancing your living experience. Included in this extraordinary lot is a black bamboo greenhouse, designed by the globally acclaimed architect James Wolfe. This architectural gem marries beauty with functionality, embodying the property's commitment to sustainable living and wellness. Inside, a rich variety of plant medicines and lush edible plants thrive, offering residents access to fresh, organic produce just steps from their home. Where luxury meets the jungle and permaculture, this lot exemplifies a living environment that cherishes both opulence and ecological responsibility. The integration of permaculture principles ensures that the land is both cherished and preserved, fostering a sustainable ecosystem that enriches both residents and the surrounding wildlife. The utmost priority given to security means that residents enjoy both peace and privacy in this exclusive community. This commitment to safety allows everyone to relax fully and enjoy their own piece of paradise. In summary, this property represents a rare chance to embrace the epitome of luxurious living while adhering to a sustainable, health-conscious lifestyle. Nestled among a permaculture haven and equipped with modern conveniences, it offers a unique lifestyle where residents can indulge in the best of both worlds in a secure, exclusive setting.
