Rainmaker...Even the iconic name evokes images of pristine natural beauty that lies beyond the boundaries of ones imagination. This properties defies description by mere words and is the essence of what has made Costa Rica one of the worlds most sought after and envied nations. This 1500 acre gem is located in the heart of the Quepoa Biological Cooridor otherwise known as the Fila Chonta Mountain Range is is host to one of the most diverse biological ecosystems on the planet. Rainmaker is teeming with wildlife and undiscovered natural treasures and offers visionaries a unique opportunity to own a magical preserve that is both isolated and protected from the outside world, yet amazingly accessible and with working infrastructure to allow for research and development of an ecological community as an example for the world to envy. There is currently a fully developed canopy walk and bridge system exploring the most accessible portions of the property, with caretakes homes, Rancho/restaurant and all the infrastructure to allow for easy accessibly, enjoyment and research. The vast majority of the property, more than 90% is virgin rainforest which is home to almost every imaginable specias known in Costa Rica, including a once thought to be extinct Harlequin Frog. An ideal acquisition for a private retreat, foundation research center or biological investment, this property abounds with everything inherent to Costa Rica...PURE WATER, Tropical rainforest, flora and fauna at unimaginable densities and beauty beyond words... An opportunity like no other..Rainmaker. THE PROPERTY HAS BEEN REDUCED BY NEARLY 70% IN PRICE AND IS QUITE SIMPLY THE FINEST PROPERTY OF ITS KIND IN ALL OF CENTRAL AMERICA!! Great eco lodge opportunity, carbon offset investment or eco tourism project.
