Pair minimalist design with sleek, cool finishes, and what do you get? Casa Boho! This brand-new, 3-bedroom, 3-bathroom home exudes a modern industrial vibe, featuring natural concrete floors and walls softened by light-colored varnished wood and black accents. The straightforward design and elements evoke a sense of tranquility and relaxation. The kitchen boasts stunning black granite countertops and a fantastic island with stools for a quick bite before heading to nearby Tamarindo Beach. The light-filled living area, sharing space with the kitchen, features a window wall that opens to a deck and outdoor dining area next to the pool. The pool, a turquoise gem set in a lush green yard, is truly refreshing! The main house includes two modern and pristine bedrooms, each with spacious bathrooms and custom wood built-ins. A third bedroom and bath, located just outside the main home, has its own entrance and is beautifully appointed—just steps from the pool. Casa Boho is ideally situated on the edge of one of Costa Rica's top tourist destinations, within the La Norma gated community in Tamarindo. It's conveniently close to the bustling town center for shopping and dining, yet far enough away to offer peace and privacy. The home sits on a 469 m2 lot, providing ample space and low maintenance. Casa Boho could easily become your new home in Costa Rica or a rental property to share with visitors, allowing you to benefit from rental income in this thriving market.
