Las Catalinas, Flamingo, Guanacaste

This home is in the heart of Beach Town and is recently renovated with sophisticated finishes that boast of modern chic with a tropical touch. As you walk into the home, you are met with a covered outdoor dining terrace and a private plunge pool right beside. This outdoor space is perfect for entertaining as it opens up into the kitchen and living space. The newly renovated kitchen is bathed in natural light streaming through windows framing the lush surroundings. The master level of the home opens up to the Town taking you steps away from the beach. The top level of the home is where sits the remaining two bedrooms, one queen room and one playful kids bunk room. These two rooms open up to a shared terrace over the pool and outdoor space. Each bedroom features an ensuite bathroom with a full shower. This home is a great home for families, tasteful in its style, and perfect in its proximity to the beach.
