Acquarello: A Premier Opportunity in Santa Teresa
Nestled just a 5-minute drive from one of Santa Teresa's top surfing beaches, Acquarello places you close to the vibrant energy of the town's shops and restaurants. Each home features three spacious bedrooms, each with its en-suite bathroom, an office area plus an additional bathroom in the downstairs common area, ideal for entertaining. Crafted with high-quality concrete construction and tropical modern finishes, these homes epitomize luxury and style. The community itself is designed with relaxation and wellness in mind, offering beautifully curated common spaces including a lap pool, a versatile yoga deck that can double as a gym, and a dedicated co-working area. Originally launched in January 2023, Acquarello quickly captured the attention of discerning buyers, selling out within just a month. This offers a rare chance to join this sought-after gated community. The model home is ready for viewing, with the entire project slated for completion in 2025. If you've been searching for a turn-key home close to the surf in Santa Teresa, this is your chance to secure one of these exceptional units in one of the area's most desirable developments.
