, Jaco, Puntarenas

Located before arriving to Jaco in the province of Puntarenas, this lodge started the first stage of development in 2009 and has been growing until today.

On a two hectare property this boutique lodge has amazing biodiversity and nature as one walks in. The property has 28 rooms and 25 pods. It is the only hotel in the area with pods as part of a disruptive concept that is perfect for coworking or coliving.

The architectural style of the lodge involves nature and some of the rooms have an open shower concept; the lodge counts also with a large swimming pool, restaurant and lobby and lots of nature. You can see lapas while having a coffee and truly immerse in a place where time suddenly disappears and you can actually unplug from everyday stress and routine.
