If you are a discerning buyer who values quality, luxury, privacy, exclusivity, and an unparalleled residential community, look no further. Solaris is the perfect home for you. Tucked away in a discreet hillside location between Escazu and Santa Ana, Solaris is not just any condominium project. It is the result of meticulous planning by an experienced team of professionals who set out to create a vertical condo community that is truly exceptional. At Solaris, you get the best of both worlds - the convenience and simplicity of a lock-and-leave condominium, coupled with a resort-like destination that offers you and your loved ones a wealth of unique experiences to create lifelong memories, all without ever leaving the comfort of your home. As soon as you arrive at Solaris, you will be greeted by a stunning mountain backdrop that not only hosts exclusive luxury residences but also professional tennis courts, a covered open-air clubhouse with ample seating, a fully equipped kitchen and grilling area, a splash park for children, a recreational and semi-Olympic pool, a business center, a professional gym, a rooftop terrace, massage rooms, saunas, steam rooms, picnic area, a treehouse, a garden/nursery, and 3 km of walking trails, just to name a few. Solaris truly is a 5-star resort atmosphere that a select few can call home. Moreover, it has an onsite concierge service run by the hospitality division of Solaris that can arrange tennis lessons, personal trainers, massages, private parties for your children in the movie theater, and much more. With Solaris you don't need to go on vacation - you're already living in a vacation paradise. Fuego 802 is a residence located on the eighth level of Solaris, which is ready to be delivered in a grey state. As the price and delivery are in the grey stage, buyers have the unique opportunity to customize not only the interior floor plan to suit their preferences, but also the design and finishes to create the dream home. If this sounds daunting, the developer offers a turnkey delivery option for an additional cost of $1500 - $1800 per square meter, resulting in the most luxurious residential condominium in the Central Valley. The proposed floor plans for Fuego 802 feature a spacious layout with 3 bedrooms and 2.5 bathrooms, including a master bedroom with breathtaking panoramic views. One of the distinctive topographical advantages of Solaris is that even from the lowest floor, the stunning views. This unit also includes 3 underground parking spaces and a storage room. To schedule an appointment, please contact us to coordinate a visit and see firsthand all that Solaris has to offer its residents!
