This penthouse residence epitomizes the ultimate in luxurious living, catering to expatriates, executives, or those seeking a splendid retirement in the soaring heights of Costa Rica's tallest residential tower. This meticulously crafted two-story penthouse showcases a distinct and personalized layout, distinguished by a series of custom design modifications implemented by the owner. Elevating the concept of penthouse living, this remarkable dwelling boasts a genuinely separate living room, accompanied by a generously sized bar area that opens onto the grand 26th-floor balcony. This balcony is enhanced with a six-person jacuzzi and an outdoor lounge set, an ideal vantage point to immerse yourself in sweeping views encompassing the urban sprawl of San Jose, Heredia, and the majestic mountain range crowned by three iconic volcanoes—Poas, Barva, and Irazu. A bespoke kitchen, complete with an expansive breakfast bar, seamlessly transitions to a well-proportioned dining room adjacent to the bar. A full bathroom caters to both the residents and their guests. Ascending the staircase reveals the second floor, defined by a central atrium and a custom-crafted mezzanine. This mezzanine doubles as a personal gym area, offering not only a space for fitness but also an expansive panorama of the city and its surrounding mountains. Both bedrooms boast ensuite bathrooms and spacious walk-in closets. The master bathroom is adorned with both a shower and a bath, accommodating various preferences. Presented fully equipped and furnished, this penthouse is meticulously designed and primed for immediate occupancy, exuding an aura of sophistication and comfort.
