Boasting idyllic views of the coastline, this home and guesthouse are perfect for the discerning buyer who wants privacy and a guaranteed view. This estate property is set on over 7 acres which include a year-round river, beautiful mature landscaping, and unobstructed views that will never be impeded (nothing can be built in front of this property). The main house has two bedrooms and bathrooms, and a welcoming open concept living/dining/kitchen area. Taking advantage of a higher elevation, airflow and views were priorities when this home was designed. The living space flows gracefully to the outdoor patio area which is where you are sure to spend most of your time. Spectacular sunsets and views of Cano Island and the Osa Peninsula can be enjoyed poolside. The home is well-appointed, and all of the furniture is custom-made from local hardwoods. Craftsmanship and style are combined with attention to comfort and ease of living. The recently completed one bedroom guesthouse adds value and practicality; it would make a great rental, or reserve it for family or friends. Completed in 2022, no detail was overlooked on this guesthouse. The clean contemporary style combines form and function and draws attention to the spectacular views.
