Finca Baru is a 30-acre offering located alongside of a protected area of Costa Rica near the town of Dominical. This is the space where the mountains meet the sea. The farm has 385 meters of coastal highway frontage and has a wonderful location as it can easily be accessed. The land at this farm is flat and includes an old sawmill, electricity, internal roads, and water. The only thing between this property and the beach is protected areas of land. Buyers can admire this protected area during a sift FIVE minute walk to the beautiful beach. The opportunities for this land are endless. Ideally used as a commercial and eco friendly residential community. This area will draw in many who wish to observe the pristine beauty of the South Pacific.
