Los Laureles, Escazu, San Jose

Los Laureles is a very exclusive city known for being a high end place where diplomats, managers and known families live.

It is located in a strategic location surrounded by the best gastronomic options, cozy cafes and shopping malls like Multiplaza and Avenida Escazu.

If you are looking for a classy and exclusive residential area to live this might be it. This five bedroom manor estate feels like a fairytale from the moment you enter the property. As you enter the gates you are welcomed by the grand entrance with palm trees on both sides until you get to the main door. As one enters into this perfectly designed house you can immediately appreciate the great lighting and ventilation it provides. The house has breathtaking french doors and windows all over it and a panoramic view toward the delicately designed state of the art garden, it has a victorian American design and as you walk through the terrace which is perfect for a good read or hosting a tea party you see the whole garden which includes a play house and elegant gazebo perfect for family gatherings and social events. On the second floor there is great distribution and lighting, each room has a panoramic views and the main bedroom has a balcony with garden view which makes you feel part of a movie, all bedrooms have a great space and beautiful finishes in terms of floors, PVC windows and meticulously designed bathrooms to pair up with. This manor is the perfect escape from everyday's routine and a very classic, unique and different kind of house. You can see each detail of both the house and garden has been perfectly designed and taken care of to the point it makes you feel like part of a painting.
