RE/MAX is proud to welcome onto the market this stunning 4 bedroom dormer-style bungalow with an integral garage as well as plenty of new tarmac parking to the front. This delightful home is very well presented and benefits from oak internal doors and skirting boards, as well as underfloor heating running throughout the ground floor which can be controlled from each individual room. It also has UPVC windows and doors, gas central heating and stunning wraparound gardens. Widdrington Station gets its name from the East Coast Mainline station that runs through the village and is closely linked to Widdrington village which is one mile to the northeast. The village sits in the countryside but is only a few miles from the quiet wonderful stretch of beach that runs from Cresswell to Druridge Bay a few miles to the north. Widdrington Station boasts a very good local shopping offer with a Co-op alongside a new pub, a hairdresser and a fish and chip takeaway. Morpeth and Ashington are both around 5 miles away and provide more shopping options from various national chains. Connectivity is provided through the train station as well as via the excellent local road network through to the A189 and the A1, meaning that commuting to Tyneside is easy.
